

Story of the Womans Literary Club, 1898-1989

Womans Literary Club - Emily Stowe

Description: -

-

Holland (Mich.) -- Buildings, structures, etc.

Holland (Mich.) -- Intellectual life.

Book clubs (Discussion groups) -- Michigan -- Holland -- History.

Women -- Books and reading -- Michigan -- Holland -- History.

Womans Literary Club (Holland, Mich.) -- History.

Womans Literary Club, 1898-1989

-story of the Womans Literary Club, 1898-1989

Notes: Includes bibliographical references (p. 60) and index.

This edition was published in 1989

Filesize: 16.64 MB

Tags: #History #of #the #Library

Ladies of the

The requirement that members be published authors eventually eased, and women interested in literary pursuits were offered membership. Many of the that emerged in the mid-19 th century also called for better access to economic independence and improved social conditions for women.

Lone Star Chapters: The Story of Texas Literary Clubs

Their collection grew to 500 volumes by 1915, and in 1922 the McMullin family donated the site at 9th Street and Ohio Avenue.

Read All 42 Books on Reese Witherspoon's Book Club List

An illustration depicting the Junto, a literary society formed by Benjamin Franklin in 1727. On 22 November 1856, she married John Stowe, who ran his family business, the Stowe Brothers Carriage Shop.

Woman's Literary Club Building

Stowe received her degree in 1867. Women joined unions in increasing numbers and put pressure on provincial and federal governments to enact legislation for working women.

Jane Cunningham Croly

In 1852, Stowe applied to Victoria College in , Ontario. Book clubs provide opportunities for individual intellectual development, but they also emerge from a tradition that stresses the power of the group to implement social and personal change. Photo via the Toronto Public Library.

Related Books

- Landkreis Würzburg
- Evolution of the townscape of medieval Newport Pagnell in Buckinghamshire
- Tierra soñada - episodios de la colonización agraria judía en la Argentina, 1889-1959
- Memoirs of a new man - a novel
- Inculturation in the South African context