Micmac

From 1957 to his death in 1979, Dewdney discovered and traced hundreds of sites throughout Ontario and westward to Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Nova Scotia Archives

Showing Children the Mi'kmaq Language

Deirdre Kessler: How are art and storytelling connected in your work? In oral tradition, the Micmac, like all other people, originated from the center of the Earth. In keeping with Micmac belief that all things of the land are alive, the area is referred to as the place of the whale-backs.

Petroglyphs At The Winnemucca Lake: North America's Oldest Known

In tales of supernatural beings the head of a great horned snake--a chepichalm--was always demanded of a suitor of a young girl by her father.
