A Book of British Music Festivals by R. Adams 9780947728229

The report said a number of freelancers, including scaffolders, sound engineers and technicians have already pivoted to different industries, such as construction, to stay afloat, and there is a risk they may never return. Download Festival, which features predominantly rock and metal acts, was canceled in March but organizers announced this week that a three-day version of the festival — operating at 10% of its usual 110,000 capacity — will go ahead as part of a government pilot scheme aimed at bringing back large-scale events. Remember to keep an eye out for the famous spray-painted pink sheep.
