After singing one, two, or three songs, he recites a passage that serves to summarize a situation, forward the plot or, occasionally, introduce a note of suspense. Then Pru~sek starts off on another track and aligns me with the traitors and collaborators under the Japanese occupation. Their first challenge is to distinguish the new kinds of social vulnerability which constitute precarious work.

For that long span of time Confucian and Neo-Confucian fathers had heard the cries of their young daughters for weeks and months on end as their feet were being shrunk and deformed. Judging by her best-known exemplars, she has studied under a female celestial since early childhood and is in command of greater magical power than the man she is destined to marry.

Hsueh Hsiang

In the tale, upon being introduced to her, Li I cohabits with her the same evening; in the play the intervention of a wedding ceremony still leaves no doubt about her dubious status as a long-term mistress rather than as a proper wife. His camaraderie with tramps, coolies, and factory workers is largely an extension of his self-pity; there is nothing revolutionary about it.
