Real presence of Christ in the Eucharist

Secondly, the Body of Christ in the form of bread is to be adored when it is exposed, as in the Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction, when it is carried in eucharistic processions, or when it is simply placed in the tabernacle, before which people pray privately. In the eucharistic celebration we do not simply remember an event in history.

Eucharistic Miracles Confirm Real Presence of Jesus Christ

Jesus, of course, is present in various ways: in the Church, in the poor and sick, at Mass, in the person of the minister, etc. If reality means actuality, and if actuality means objectivity, then the Catholic faith believes that the Christ who is in the Eucharist is the Christ of history, the one who was conceived at Nazareth, born at Bethlehem, died and rose from the dead at Jerusalem, and is now seated at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty.
