In Ireland, the BAI requires that community radio stations subscribe to the AMARC Community Radio Charter for Europe. Did you see any person s in the area that looked suspicious? According to recent Joint National Listenership Research JNLR figures, 57 percent of those surveyed said they chose to listen to local or regional radio stations.

WRFR Sat Feb 6

During 2006, a group, Choice FM, applied for and received permission to broadcasting on MW in the Dublin area over a period of thirty days. Additional licences have been added on an erratic basis since the late 1990s. Dublin City FM are essentially a community station with specialist traffic reports around rush-hour periods.
