Hard to imagine why he might have wanted such information, but goodness knows it has to be him! Presiding Elder of the Walla Walla District in 1877-81, and pastor at Colfax in 1881-2. And illustration comes by communication with heaven in the interiors; and communication with heaven takes place when the spiritual internal is opened; and the spiritual internal is opened as the interior natural is purified from evils; and this is purified from evils as man forms the habit of introspection and self-examination, when he is left to himself, as he is at home, removed from the restraints of the world, thus when he is in the full freedom of his thought, and the full liberty of the exercise of his desires, when no fear of the consequences to himself puts a limitation upon the operation of his thought, when the heart itself speaks to him, and he in his meditation forms the purposes and principles that are to govern in all the deeds of his daily life; and when in this free state he repents and desists from the evils that he sees, and goes forth on the morrow with the firm resolve to ultimate the principles so formed in all his words and works. Britain and the Great War, 1914-1918.
