Watakushi no Shakuson kan (Book, 1975) [localize-img.justmote.me]

A sense of upward relative mobility in this case is simply an illusion. When the escalator stops or slows down, it becomes difficult for the illusion to be sustained. Likewise, during the , as Gaara defiantly fought to protect Shukaku from being sealed and openly thanked Shukaku for helping him find his path in life, Shukaku came to see Gaara in a similar light to Būpuku and fought to protect Gaara just as earnestly.

UHM Library : Japan Collection : New Acquisitions : April 2005

Paired papers on net migration throughout Japan in a pre-war 1920-35 period and postwar 1950-55 period, comparing these two peacetime periods to clarify regional patterns and trends. All these generalizations use civilizations as the unit of analysis and explain multiple patterns of development in terms of macro-cultural variables.
