Mr. Nobody

The way Alexie talks about books and poetry and readers and people in general in the first part of the story is beautiful and poetic and insightful. I liked it very much, and I still do. We could do nothing to help these poor miserable people, yet their screams tormented us.

Read A Little Poetry

Well over ten thousand poets and writers maintain listings in this essential resource for writers interested in connecting with their peers, as well as editors, agents, and reading series coordinators looking for authors. In this poignant poem, the poet illustrates the indignities of growing old.

A Short Analysis of the 'Little Bo

These nine stories were fantastic, really taking me away. I push against the dizzying onslaught of heavy dark water. Give a reason for your answer.
