Walker's Appeal, in Four Articles

My friend got a little put out, and so walking off, said that his son could write as well as any white man. Where can they get us? At this moment, every negro was found to be perfectly at liberty; and one of them seizing a club, gave Petit a violent blow on the head, and laid him dead at his feet; and Allen, who came to his assistance, met a similar fate, from the contents of a pistol fired by another of the gang. But they who stay to till the ground must be slaves.

These positions I shall endeavour, by the help of the Lord, to demonstrate in the course of this Appeal, to the satisfaction of the most incredulous mind--and may God Almighty, who is the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, open your hearts to understand and believe the truth. Not satisfied with this, my Lord! Such men, brethren, ought to be supported by us. Suffice it for me to say, that the name of this very man Richard Allen though now in obscurity and degradation, will notwithstanding, stand on the pages of history among the greatest divines who have lived since the apostolic age, and among the Africans, Bishop Allen's will be entirely pre-eminent.

Walker's appeal in four articles : together with a preamble, to the coloured citizens of the world, but in particular, and very expressly to those of the United States of America : Walker, David, 1785

And is not this the case generally? And yet some of you have the hardihood to say that you are free and happy! The preachers of America cannot see them, but they can send out missionaries to convert the heathens, notwithstanding. I know that thousands, and perhaps millions of my brethren in these States, have never heard of such a man as Bishop Allen--a man whom God many years ago raised up among his ignorant and degraded brethren, to preach Jesus Christ and him crucified to them--who notwithstanding, had to wrestle against principalities and the powers of darkness to diffuse that gospel with which he was endowed among his brethren--but who having overcome the combined powers of devils and wicked men, has under God planted a Church among us which will be as durable as the foundation of the earth on which it stands.

Walker's Appeal, in Four Articles

No, they would die to a man, before they would suffer such things from men who are no better than themselves, and perhaps not so good.

This question, my brethren, I leave for you to digest; and may God Almighty force it home to your hearts.
