Competition Law of the European Union, Sixth Edition

The approximately 200 pages of economic analysis, written by the economists Kerber, Schwalbe and Strohm, are a particularly welcome addition.

Some Thoughts on Evidence and Procedure in European Community Competition Law

They also stressed the importance of competition authorities being able to issue interim injunctions in competition proceedings.

The evaluation of tenders may only begin after the deadline for submission has expired. The legislation, institutions and procedures remark the differences among these advanced systems of market control. In such a decentralised enforcement context, efficient coordination between the national and European competition enforcement authorities is key.
