Last week, she and the First Minister committed to publishing the Covid-19 vaccination plan that was reviewed at Cabinet, as well as a national list of vaccination centres and information on how many storage freezers are in each health board. It is important that NHS staff know that patient-facing NHS staff, particularly in Covid red areas—I am talking about intensive care units, high-dependency units, Covid wards and so on, and also primary care and our ambulance service—will be contacted first. The bill also eliminates a requirement that 80 percent of the funds for education and training have to go to able-bodied adults without dependents.
