Trade School in Worcester, MA

So much has happened to Worcester since I was a kid. If any of this rings a bell with anyone PLEASE email me.

Live: Gaumont Cinema, Worcester

I LOVED the fireworks on the Fourth at Greenhill Park. I went to Providence St. I needed to go to Boston and how nice to go to union station and hop on a train and Boston here I am.

Worcester, MA

My sister and I used to have fun on the slides in the funhouse.

Worcester's independent cinemas trying to stay in the picture

I was outside with a WWII german helmet on picking up hail stones when my sister called and said there was something bad coming. Keep up the great work!!!! It was by a river and there was an amusement park with a long slide which started at the top of the hill and ended up in the water. I also remember a camp of somekind at green hill park.

Webster Square Cinemas in Worcester, MA

We also went to the Polish club on Green St at least three times a week.

Paris Cinema in Worcester being razed

Miss the beautiful parks, El Morocco restaurant and my old house on the first corner of Tracy Place. Looking at the aerial, the hallway to access Jordan Marsh was on the LEFT side of the anchor.

Worcester County MA Newspapers and Obituaries

What probably contributed, greatly, to its crime-ridden reputation, was the word-of-mouth that circulated amongst wary suburbanites, in Paxton and beyond, when local architect and prominent citizen Armand Casavant, now deceased, was jumped and savagely beaten near his parked car. .
