Adding to the dreariness and deprivation of the postwar world in the novel is the remembrance of the recent war itself.

Literature and Crisis

He dimly recalls the outbreak of a war, which included the dropping of an atomic bomb on an English city. Charter 77 was a landmark in the struggle against Communist totalitarianism. He is a symbol that embodies the Party.

Best Dystopian Novels

They would yank him from sleep one night and he would disappear. Finally for all three of them the most important problem was the problem of human freedom; everything else developed from this. Here I am not trying to deal with the familiar claim that freedom is an illusion, or with the claim that there is more freedom in totalitarian countries than in democratic ones, but with the much more tenable and dangerous proposition that freedom is undesirable and that intellectual honesty is a form of anti-social selfishness.

Friederike Kind

Provided that they steer clear of dangerous subjects such as psychology, scientists are privileged persons. After that there is no love.
