Comment A fundamental objective in the solution of the Palestine problem is to achieve a reasonable prospect for the preservation of peaceful relations in the Middle East.

UNDP Jobs

At the forty-second meeting, the Chairman and two members presented suggestions as to the working programme of the Committee for the preparation of the report. In the United States, opposition to Zionism is voiced by the American Council for Judaism, which opposes proposals to establish a Jewish State.

Mandate for Palestine

FAO engages with a variety of resource partners, such as Global Environmental Facility GEF , Green Climate Fund GFC , African Development Bank AfDB , private sector and foundations.

Government commitments

The year, with its preoccupations about Public Security consequent on events in Syria, was not propitious for an advance in the political organization of the Country; and the proposal to form a Legislative Council has not been, and cannot usefully be, revived while Arab political leaders maintain their opposition to a fundamental principle of the Mandate. These measures have been useful to show levels and trends, as well as regional differences, for different types of effort. The true motives for reform, however, may well differ from those announced by the reformer.

General Analysis of the Role of NGOs

Factors operating in the problem, policy and politics streams that shape agenda-setting. Three countries where elections were not occurring had a budget scheduled within the next year, which could open space to advance the food and nutrition agenda.

Mandate for Palestine

This brief first examines the causes of land-related conflict, then examines how the issues and opportunities change through the conflict cycle: before, during, and after violent conflict. Centrally, the Government is organized into various departments responsible for the discharge of prescribed duties.
