Existentialism and Morality

I think that you might answer differently if you actually had to face your own death.

Søren Kierkegaard

Authorship and Authority in Kierkegaard's Writings. But this invasion has been split completely into two camps which vehemently attack each other. .

The Portable Kierkegaard

Anhology and Trembling Penguin Classics. Later he constantly thought of the sufferings of Christ.

Kierkegaard and Nietzsche

Carl Jung Books and How to Read them

Kierkegaard's first significant book was his M. They force the dialectical movements of the making and unmaking of the self before God to undergo lyrical imitations of meditation while the clefts, rifts, abysses, are everywhere to be seen.

How Friedrich Nietzsche Changed Philosophy Forever ~ The Imaginative Conservative

We must accept this on faith and faith alone, for clearly it cannot be like the process whereby one existent is related to another; it involves a passage from one realm to another which is not accessible to the human mind, Christians who lacked this faith and who failed to live by it were attacked by Kierkegaard; this was the theological root of his violent criticism of the Established Church of Denmark. People who in some sense believe the same things may relate to those beliefs quite differently. Swenson's 1941 translation under his own name on 29 April, and edited by Hilarius Bookbinder, 30 April 1845.

The Portable Kierkegaard by Søren Kierkegaard

This was an existentialism which still had room for a God whom Sartre later expelled, but which started the great pendulum-swing toward the modern concepts of the absurd. .

Kierkegaard and Nietzsche

Even that which in itself is arousing, such as thoughts, reflections, ideas, can by custom and monotony lose all their significance, just as a spring can lose the resilience which makes it what it is. Universals are instantiated in a multitude of particulars in a variety of ways, and there are a number of ways in which one can act and still satisfy these Universals.
