Declaration of the Rights of the Child (1959)

How the Convention works These articles explain how governments, the United Nations — including the Committee on the Rights of the Child and UNICEF - and other organisations work to make sure all children enjoy all their rights. The organization of work, leisure, and living space is such that there is no reason for confining children or excluding them from certain activities. Children with disabilities Every child with a disability should enjoy the best possible life in society.
