The Kentucky Abolitionists in the Midst of Slavery

Klotter and Craig Thompson Friend provide significantly revised content with updated material on gender politics, African American history, and cultural history. Unfortunately, the same rigid perfectionism, Sears contends, made it difficult for most of the missionaries to transcend cultural barriers to convert the native white mountaineers.

Kentucky Abolitionists in the Midst of Slavery 1854

Not only did thousands of men die on battlefields and millions of slaves become free; cultural institutions reshaped themselves in the context of the war and its aftermath.
