Sudan: Former Vice President of Sudan's Al Bashir Regime Under Arrest

But such a move would be more than symbolic — especially to the victims of Darfur. Indictment of Omar al Bashir, the Dictator of Sudan! Peace efforts with the south Throughout this period, war with the SPLA continued, displacing millions of southerners. During the brutal crackdown by security forces, many women reported sexual abuse and rape as a means to silence them.

Omar Al

Changing the institutions and policies that drive conflict in Sudan Whether the indictment of Omar al Bashir marks a turning point for the better in Sudan depends on whether the NCP genuinely accepts that it now has to change the repressive and murderous policies pursued by the regime, end the ongoing crimes against the civilian population in and secure a sustainable peace. Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties, Art. Bashir dissolved the parliament, banned political parties, and strictly controlled the press.

Sudan: Former Vice President of Sudan's Al Bashir Regime Under Arrest

The Sudanese Revolutionary Front SRF , which is a coalition of armed groups with whom peace negotiations are currently underway, have been insisting that al-Bashir be handed over to the ICC. His troops' harsh response led to thousands of deaths, and for that, he is wanted for crimes against humanity at the International Criminal Court.
