Johannean Christology If there were nothing else in the to prove the Divinity of, the first fourteen verses in the would suffice to convince a believer in the of that. If liturgy is the communal manifestation of religious encounter between God and his people, then this manifestation would be influenced in each age according to certain cultural patterns. Blot the out of the , and you still have in the Synoptic Gospels the identical concerning the of which we now draw out of the ; some points of the might be less clearly stated than they are now, but they would remain substantially the same.

Introducing the New Testament

This will be useful work for scholars of religion in the classical world and comparative religion, as well as for those in Roman history and civilization. As new-born infant, Christ is adored by the shepherds and the , representatives of the Jewish and the world. There is no need to point out that the of Christ is not united with the Word, according to the and views.
