Action

Partnership and Partner The partnership firm is held vicariously liable for the actions of all the partners of the firm. But does this immutability imply that the present generation has no obligations created by past crimes? Perhaps more generally, we might argue that historians have an obligation to deliberately and actively include those aspects of the past for further research that are the most morally troublesome—for example, the origins and experience of slavery during the eighteenth century in the American South, or the role of the Gulag in the Soviet Union in the twentieth century.
