First, the High Court found that it had jurisdiction because the parties had a civil marriage rather than a customary marriage, as the defendant claimed.

CAP. 192

Indeed, unless my memory is at fault, rarely has there been, on an issue affecting African politics, such a consensus of opinion, expressing itself from a wide variety of organs of opinion. The delegating authority may subsequently revoke this consent.

Constitutional Documents [Cap 1]

He also gave examples of what he considered to be an odd coincidence of the presidential candidates getting the same number of votes in various places. Accordingly, the plaintiffs were not entitled to the relief claimed. In Nyasaland, there will certainly be a majority of African electors.

Constitutional Documents [Cap 1]

Nkaisu visited their polling stations and greeted some people did not make any useful contribution to this case.

Lewanika and Others v Frederick Jacob Titus Chiluba (Constitutional Jurisdiction) (S.C.Z. Judgment No. 14 of 1998) [1998] ZMSC 11 (9 November 1998);

The Supreme Court, therefore, in our opinion, missed another great opportunity to further entrench and uphold the rule of law in Ghana.

Women and Justice: Topics: Divorce and dissolution of marriage, Property and inheritance rights

In 1985, following a fresh look at possible arrangements, the House decided to establish a select committee to concentrate on scrutinising delegated legislation. This clause provides for the amendment of constitutional provisions not covered by any of the preceding clauses, and represents the formula for category 4 of the 1950 Conference. Nor do we, but the question is, what is to come in its place? Chintu routinely altering almost all the results as he received them from the polling stations.
