

Settlement examination 1720-1844 Rawreth and Rayleigh, Essex - (preserved at the Southend-on-Sea Branch of Essex Record Office)

Essex Society for Family History - The Emperour Family of Lower Norfolk County (Concluded) on JSTOR

Description: -

-
Older people -- Psychology
Older people -- Care and hygiene.
Middle age -- Health and hygiene.
Older people -- Japan.
Middle age -- Japan.
Poor -- England -- Rayleigh (Essex) -- History.Settlement examination 1720-1844 Rawreth and Rayleigh, Essex - (preserved at the Southend-on-Sea Branch of Essex Record Office)

-
Essex settlement series -- 2Settlement examination 1720-1844 Rawreth and Rayleigh, Essex - (preserved at the Southend-on-Sea Branch of Essex Record Office)

Notes: Bibliography, p48. - Includes index.
This edition was published in 1985

Filesize: 50.75 MB

Tags: #A #History #of #the #County #of #Essex

A History of the County of Essex

Tanks at last came into their kingdom. That she never was married, nor done any act to the best of her knowledge to have gained a subsequent settlement.

A History of the County of Essex

We love to hear about the soldiers, but also remember the many who served in support roles, nurses, doctors, land army, munitions workers etc. Elizabeth Hall, the wife of Abel Hall, aged near 39 years, upon her oath says that on 27 July 1746 she, this examinant as also appears by a certificate , was married to her said husband in the parish of St Sepulchre in the liberty of the Fleet, London.

A History of the County of Essex

The examination of John Adams.

The Wartime Memories Project

He served in Ranikhet, India. From thence they both removed and lived in a house in Bull Head Court of £16 per annum in the said parish of Christ Church, and there lived about four years and paid there likewise all parochial taxes for the said house, share and share alike.

Examinations, 1750

The popularity of the site means that it is far exceeding available resources. That he was discharged in the parish of Bone and had his wages paid him at his lordship's house in the said parish of Bone in the county of Sussex. Jack returned to Britain in April 1919 to RE base at Chatham, Kent and was discharged into the Reserves in May 1919 returning to his home, 8 Bellefield Ave.

A History of the County of Essex

Passed to Fulham, 15 Feb. Sworn, 6 July 1761, before us, Samuel Bever, Benjamin Cox.

Related Books

- 30 år i folkestyrets tjeneste - om Folkebevægelsen mod EUs historie 1972-2001
- Reclaiming caring in teaching and teacher education
- Fabbricato in Italia
- Modern American school buildings - Being a treatise upon and designs for, the construction of school
- Reducing regional inequalities