Lamentation (Matthew Shardlake Series #6) by C. J. Sansom, Paperback

Only one page has been recovered--clutched in the hand of a murdered London printer. Shardlake's investigations take him on a trail that begins among the backstreet printshops of London, but leads him and his trusty assistant Jack Barak into the dark and labyrinthine world of court politics, a world Shardlake swore never to enter again. Lamentation is a wonderful, engaging read.

Sansom shows that, when it comes to intriguing Tudor-based narratives, Hilary Mantel has a serious rival. King Henry VIII is slowly, painfully dying.
