The recollections of a Virginia newspaper man, (Book, 1920) [localize-img.justmote.me]

The officers and non-commissioned officers were sent by sea back to the States, while our horses and the private soldiers, of whom not many remained, were transferred to the dragoons. As soon as all the transports had arrived with troops and equipments, our whole force sailed for the rendezvous off Lobos Island, whence we sailed for Vera Cruz. Letters, 1861-1862, of George Bouton ca.
