Matthew 25:14-30 (NIV)

The Parable of the Bags of Gold

"¹⁴Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his possessions to them.¹⁵ To one he gave five bags of gold, to another two bags, and to another one bag, ¹⁶to each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey.¹⁷ The man who had received the five bags of gold went off at once and put his money to work and gained five bags more.¹⁸ So also, the one with two bags of gold gained two more. But the man who had received one bag went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.¹⁹

"²⁰After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them.²¹ The man who had received five bags of gold brought the other five. "Master," he said, "you entrusted me with five bags of gold. See, I have gained five more."

"²²His master replied, "Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!"

"²³Then the man who had received one bag of gold came. "Master," he said, "I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed.²⁴ So I was afraid and went out and hid your gold in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you."
