The Collaborator: The Trial and Execution of Robert Brasillach by Alice Kaplan, excerpt

De Gaulle refused- some say due to being confused by a picture of Brasillach with French fascist leader Jacques Doriot, where Doriot was in German uniform and de Gaulle thought Doriot in uniform was Brasillach in uniform. Interesting read about someone in WWII that many people don't know about. In 1928, he was admitted to the prestigious , where he received his degree in 1932.
