What, then, in the most peaceful and serene? Hence He is at once hid and not hid, John xiv.

Newman Cardinal John Henry

How mtoiy things we do in private which it would be the greatest punishment possible we can conceive to do in public. We happen at this moment to bo in this world, but any moment we may find ourselves in the world unseen. It is a problem which has never been solved before.

It is not eolituy, not an accident, not like one great man, as Buona- parte ; bnt he intended and the work has lasted eighteen hundred years, going on the same way. It does not approach towards Him so much as already have Him ; it m heaven rather than loves heaven ; it is a partaker of the divine Natore rather than a lover of it. Conviction and acting, conviction and faith — faith not of necessity.

Newman Cardinal John Henry

Why does He punish him? The Cardinal's voice, as is well known, was not a strong one.
