Commission members' comments on draft of final report, 1968-69. And although we seem to have limped through rather well in the 20th century, I think the underpinnings of our constitutional system of government and rule of law have been undermined, and I don't think we have yet seen the full detriment of that undermining, because on the surface people probably go by more what Wall Street is doing rather than the underpinnings of a free society.
