SAGE Books

If processes were working properly you should never have found yourself in this situation. The increasing shift toward arts-based research has raised complex questions, such as how to evaluate its quality and even whether distinctions exist between what is art and what is research.

The book carries the reader through the steps of life history research, from conceptualizing the project to the various means of presenting the results - with an eye towards understanding the nature of the relationship between participant and researcher and how that relationship may or may not shape the project.

Other Books by Ardra L. Cole

For example, when considering applying for an NIHR fellowship or grant, researchers should consider seeking support from their local Research Design Service for PPI related advice and support to cover involvement costs. We were fortunate that Shoba ensured that we were regularly updated and informed of progress, so we did not feel that we were out of the loop. Guides, Sherpas and Fellow Travellers

I also know myself as a very particular type of traveller — both of the conventional and PhD type. You will leave this webinar with a better understanding of the components of an effective paragraph, as well as tips for creating cohesion between and within paragraphs.

What to do when your thesis is rejected by the examiners

I was reluctant at first, but Shoba really encouraged me to come and meet her and the other PPI partner. Contributors include: Dawn Abt-Perkins Beverly Bailey Carol Bartell William Berube R.
