Tourism Tourism strategy

Some of the route through the Chilterns will be tunneled. Spend an afternoon wandering its historic streets with an abundance of boutique shops, restaurants, cafes and bistros or stroll down to the suspension bridge which spans the River Thames and joins the counties of Buckinghamshire and Berkshire.

Expanding the visitor economy

Panting dogs, bored children, enthusiastic pensioners, white linen-clad ladies, zoom lenses and bulging picnic hampers in evidence. Set your own itinerary and enjoy the freedom to come and go as you please and discover the best of what the River Thames has to offer. A hot July afternoon beside the river Thames at Marlow is always to be savoured.

Connected for Visitors

Their boundaries were often drawn to include a section of each type of land, resulting in an irregular county boundary.

About Us

I make a mental note to return in July for the Goring Gap Boat Club regatta, with a mere 600 competing rowers! The excavation of a tropical seabed All around are scattered industrial archeology: rail tracks, cables, coils, metalwork embedded in the chalk, rubble, rotten sleepers, fence posts, bleached signs, signposts, mysterious shafts, ruts and excavations.
