It would enable us to enrich our plans and attend to those aspects that may have been overlooked. No systematic effort was made to collect all these translations within a single volume with revision and annotation. Considerable work has been done on Uncollected Works of Iqbal Kulliyāt-i-Bāqiyāt-i-Iqbāl, Urdu and Uncollected Works of Iqbal Kulliyāt-i-Bāqiyāt-i-Iqbāl, Persian.

Detailed programme of publications, both new titles and reprints, shall be presented to the Iqbal Organising Committee in case of acceptance of the proposal. Mohan: , also by Army War College U. The proliferation of this secondary literature, though beneficial in some respects, nevertheless, had its negative side too.

KIT

Not to speak of the text of the Letters and Statements, even the poetical texts were never thoroughly compared and collated with the manuscripts that Iqbal prepared for the press. The Collected Letters published in several volumes from Delhi were riddled with all sorts of errors because these were simply a collection made on the basis of the extant published works without referring to the originals and without further research and investigation of the contents.
