Wolfpack (naval tactic)

On the strategic level, the U-boat campaigns in the Atlantic were a continuation of the fighting in World War I. The ocean was immense, and individual convoys could choose from a number of possible courses to arrive at Britain.

Wolfpack by Kaplan, Philip and Currie, Jack

The 300 U-boat figure was calculated by him to mean that from this figure 100 boats would be in repairs, rest and working-up, 100 more on their way to and from operational areas - leaving on average 100 U-boats in actual combat areas.

The Wolfpacks

I-501 and I-502 were scuttled at Singapore. Between 12 and 17 June the U-boats were on passage from the north of Scotland to the.

ISBN 1557509549 Descripton: Mainly a pictorial history, lots of photos, but also paintings. The submarine pens of western France would remain full for some time.

Wolfpack : the U

In 1939, 18 were built; in 1940, 50 new subs were made, and in 1941, 199 more. With the collapse of France, Germany now had control of powerful land based transmitters on the coast of France, which were perfectly capable of sending messages to U-boats across the Atlantic. Heinz Baumann, captain of 1944-1945.

Wolfpack Prien

This however was to change after the fall of France. As the American Navy acclimated to the circumstances, and losses decreased, the U-boats changed their focus again to the center of the ocean, in an area where land-based aircraft from either shore could not follow.
