If you will be attending a court hearing soon, check for advice about how you can prepare in advance, what you may experience at the hearing, and how you may need to follow up afterwards.

MDHHS

The complainant will be notified by telephone or in writing of the decision made on the case. This procedure carries the same legal effect as if the father and the mother were married at the time between conception and birth. Also note that any licensed attorney may apply through MDHS for license information in a non-MDHS case.
