John Nash, R.A. (1893

As a history student at Bedford College, London, just after the war, she recalls the intensity of seeing the National Gallery pictures returning from their refuge in the slate quarries of North Wales to be viewed one at a time as examples of the great works of European art. Allen shared his passion for art and literature with his wife Beryl. An educator throughout his life, and by turns a publisher, patron, curator, writer, editor, and artist and craftsman, like Ede, Allen Freer was a true pioneer of culture.
