A Woman of No Importance by Sonia Purnell: Summary and reviews

The type of woman who gets annoyed at her husband so spends an extra month on ski holiday in the Alps to spite him. Now, up north and safe after his last onstage meltdown, he stood in the general store in town looking at a bottle of whiskey for a good four minutes.

Purnells New English Encyclopedia Full Set of 12 + 2 Dictionaries (1960s)

With Winston there was no such thing as moderation. But they both had equally remarkable, if idiosyncratic, virtues which came perfectly into play at the nation's moment of crisis.

CLEMENTINE

He started to separate the good pot that would be trimmed and sold as flower from the lesser grade that would be consolidated and turned into hash.
