The scope of AFRICANA encompasses literature, religion, music, dance, sociology, politics, and, above all, history.

Africana by Kwame Anthony Appiah

Internally clean and tightly bound. The guide covers the period just prior to WW II through the present, and everything is nicely laid out in an extensive chronology.

Africana by Kwame Anthony Appiah and Henry Louis Gates, Jr.

Woodson in the black newspaper the Baltimore Afro-American. Townsend Center, 460 Stephens Hall, The University of California, Berkeley Calif. Modifying the editorial structure that Du Bois planned to use to complete The Encyclopædia of the Negro, we deployed a staff of some three dozen writers and editors, and we solicited about 400 scholars to write longer, interpretive articles.
