Taking the Bar Exam

This is the Bar exam that many states have started to adopt in an effort to have 1 uniform exam. Then, one has to pass the First Juristic Examination in Law, which is administered in parts by the Higher State Court of the respective state and in parts by the university the person attends; the state part accounts for two thirds of the final grade, the university part for one third. Many states require a set of fingerprints.

General Information from the NCBE and NCBLE

Less teamfight oriented so you could probably get away with a deathball strat. The candidate must pass a battery of examinations for admittance. In the world where Newbee last-picks a pushing hero, they shut down the NP early-game, and spank Liquid, the article is about how Liquid had a shitty draft with next to no depush and weak highground defence.
