Disappointment over the trickle-down approach paved the way for the adoption of the basic-needs strategy, which focused on increasing the participation in and benefits of the development process for the poor, as well as recognizing women's needs and contributions to society. Jean did make time for fun with family and friends, shooting pool and bowling with her son in their league, using her own 8lb purple bowling ball, as purple was her favorite color , She enjoyed dinners and theater with her sister and daughter and walks with her Maltese terrier, Jesse James.
