Real output effects of announced monetary policy in a small open economy

The League of Arab States extends its greetings to this great assembly and expresses every wish for the success of its work. Lucille Mair, Secretary-General of the International Conference, and the members of the Preparatory Committee for the remarkable work they have carried out in organizing and convening this International Conference. Because it is undesigned and not the product of conscious reflection, the spontaneous order that emerges of itself in social life can cope with the radical ignorance we all share of the countless facts on knowledge of which society depends.
