Because of Maria, tourist season is postponed indefinitely. Haiman also offers a window into circular migration for young readers returning to the island after living in the states, and vice-versa.

Puerto Rico Education

Because Puerto Rico is a territory rather than a state, federal law treats its residents as second-class citizens, depriving them of full voting rights and representation in Washington, as well as equal access to health care and disability benefits. Vice versa, whether youth are particularly suited to aid in undoing racism.

Puerto Rico's Operation Bootstrap

The scenes in Columbia University provide an interesting moment to revisit past ethnic studies movements and reflect on how they may have been contained by academic institutions.
