Clair wrote to Major Hamtramck at Fort Knox Vincennes that I have enclosed a speech to the Indians of the Wabash and those of the Miami village, which I must take the liberty to request you will get forwarded to them... It is much the wish of the general government that peace may be established with those people, and the trial to effect it must be made. Now, I agree very much with what the right hon. There will be shortages of certain key materials, particularly certain types of steel, and components where production has been affected during recent weeks.
