Jean Chrétien

Donolo was not part of Chrétien's inner circle, which comprised , and his wife Aline, but he often exercised a certain stabilizing influence on Chrétien, and was able to maintain good relations with the Martin camp. On August 5, 2010, Chrétien complained of experiencing difficulty walking, and was admitted to a hospital. And if we weren't getting Greeked, we were getting Sikhed.

Israël et la réalisation des prophéties [Israël pour les chrétiens]

Chrétien demanded to be appointed , with control of patronage and organization in Quebec.

Comment les chrétiens doivent

Si ce point de vue était de prime abord jugé trop péremptoire par certains de mes frères et soeurs chrétiens, je n'en serais pas autrement surpris. In November 1986, when the Liberals held a leadership review, Chrétien attempted to organize against Turner, which led to a bruising battle between factions loyal to the two men. The complex issues concerning conflict-of-interest laws, ownership of the Grand-Mere Inn and its golf course, and the firing of Beaudoin did not excite much interest on the part of the Canadian public.

Chrétien and Gagliano both denied that Carle's presence had anything to do with the increased grants. In June 1999, , Chrétien's well liked communications director, retired to be replaced with. He has an instinctive approach, and faced with a problem, he's always comes out with sensible answers, and that's why I say he never has to eat his words.
