The Choice Between a U.S.

First, if you think the United States and its closest allies are going to write all the rules themselves, think again. Second, and following from the first point, no single power can write and enforce all the rules of an order. Turkey supports the protests, but suppresses dissent at home — just like China, Iran and Russia.

Iran, Russia, China, Turkey celebrate 'collapse' of US

All members receive all publications at no additional cost. The big four — China, Russia, Turkey and Iran — are poised to exploit and emerge stronger. However, Russia, China, Iran and increasingly Turkey have all awaited the period when the world would become multi-polar again.
