It is impossible to remain silent : reflections on fate and memory in Buchenwald / Jorge Semprun and Elie Wiesel ; translated by Peggy Frankston with an introduction by Radu Ioanid.

He was influential in laying the groundwork for the British empire, but was most famous for his long experiments in communications with spirits and angels. But since the belief already exists, he will be very hospitable to any ground that suggests itself. But even in such matters a wrong impression may be given by reserve or flattery; and in matters less directly practical, such as philosophy deals with, very strong instinctive beliefs are sometimes wholly mistaken, as we may come to know through their perceived inconsistency with other equally strong beliefs.

Reflections on Saint Joseph in St. John Paul II's Redemptoris Custos

We do not even assume that any effects of such communion will be noticeable to us or anyone else, let alone that they will conform to preconceived notions of what spiritual development should produce.

Anamchara: Carl McColman

The difference between man and the lower animals, which to our human conceit appears enormous, was shown to be a gradual achievement, involving intermediate beings who could not with certainty be placed either within or without the human family.

Reflections of an RSCJ: Life unfolding...

Here we have another Hebraic origin of their mythological speculations. Within the next two centuries, despite the rise and fall of several dynasties, the patronage of philosophers in India in general did not change.

Catholic Silent Retreats

The mystical encounter was a part of all those previous experiences.

Notice how the beat in life is similar to the beat in your own heart. Olcott was a colonel in the Civil War and served on the investigating committee into Abraham Lincoln's murder. Please Call Me By My True Names.

Bill's thoughts on Everyday Mysticism and other Sabbatical Reflections.

Are you feeling overwhelmed or anticipatory? There are other beings than human beings. When was the last time you spent some alone time with your Dad—God the Father? Spiritual writers have said that information plus experience equals wisdom.

Mystic Way of the Heart

What answer should you expect him to make, if some one were to tell him that in those days he was watching foolish phantoms, but that now he is somewhat nearer to reality, and is turned towards things more real, and sees more correctly; above all, if he were to point out to him the several objects that are passing by, and question him, and compel him to answer what they are? Maranatha Agape Posted by at 3:57 am Tagged with: , , , , , This piece is dedicated to my dear friends and brothers, Justin Glosson and Matt Smithey, and to all others who, like them, are musicians on the way of the heart. First, one has to live a morally virtuous life and second, the adept must prepare himself philosophically.
