Experiences of parents and general practitioners with end-of-life care in adolescents and young adults with cancer. Divergent views on the occurrence and management of non-attendance may be explained by the professional context and orientation of different groups. The methods used may depend on available resources, perceived urgency of particular appointments and individual family circumstances.

Paediatric Care

Entrants to graduate-entry courses as in the US , usually lasting four or five years, have previously completed a three- or four-year university degree, commonly but by no means always in sciences. Some bring specialized pediatric care closer to home. Notably, 10 participants were family physicians FP ; 8 were members of the PHC team e.

Pediatrics

This could be by phone call, in person or using digital communication as appropriate, and might be carried out by health visitors, nurses or receptionists in addition to GPs.
