. Another example in the film is the political canvasser who is timid and petrified at the idea of engaging with someone on a non-superficial level, even if that were to be a well-to-do blind man, and even if that were, ostensibly, her mission. The cinema group met in Reading but unfortunately there were only five seats available at the screening but seven people were present, so they all went for coffee and cake instead — not a bad substitute! The following morning, a body is discovered in the master bedroom, its throat cut.
