Fact check: ADA, disability rights and face mask requirements

Based upon the CDC guidance, a business or government agency may require customers to wear a face mask to limit the spread of COVID-19.

Employment Laws: Medical and Disability

As discussed later in this Entry, there is sharp disagreement about whether individuals with the most severe intellectual impairments qualify as subjects of justice. People with disabilities still deal with varying levels of stigma and marginalization in everyday life and the media.

A Guide to Disability Rights Laws

This means that the individual may not be able to put on or remove a face mask without assistance.

CA Department of Rehabilitation

Disability-oriented criticism of these theories has focused on their assumptions about the individuals who are eligible to make a hypothetical contract or participate in the cooperative scheme it establishes. Wikler held that the category of cognitive disability was socially constructed by the competence thresholds set for important social activities, such as signing a contract or voting in an election.

Disability Laws and Acts by Country/Area

But some of these changes can be expensive; at some point, the cost may make further change unreasonable. The Department may bring a lawsuit where it has investigated a matter and has been unable to resolve violations. Federal law also lets you bring someone to help you if you can't read or write.

Disability Issues Brief: The ADA and Face Mask Policies

On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization WHO declared COVID-19 as a pandemic.
