Catherine of Aragon

Drake pillaged the Caribbean in 1585-1586, broke the Bank of Spain; nearly broke the Bank of Venice, to which Spain was heavily indebted; and ruined Spanish credit. We seek to retell the story of our beginnings. Behind her a male is holding a can, possibly beer, and in the other hand a cigarette.

Queen Isabella II of Spain Was a Controversial Ruler

They founded a chain of trading settlements along the coast on islands and peninsulas. The Spanish responded by seizing English merchant ships that were docked in Antwerp.

A Brief History of Spain

The space where the hospital was built has contained a variety of buildings over the centuries, including a mosque and a fort. The Spanish Inquisition was formed in 1480.

Spain's American Colonies and the Encomienda System

In 1701 the War of the Spanish Succession began between Austria and France.
