Animals, the law, and veterinary medicine : a guide to veterinary law (Book, 1997) [localize-img.justmote.me]

The costs assessed by the board may include only those costs directly related to the prosecution of the charges against the licensee or other person, including investigatory costs where appropriate. You must maintain records that identify the treated animal or animals.

AR

The board, based upon the evidence and its findings of fact, may enter its final order, which may include one or more of the following provisions:
1 Suspend or limit the right to practice veterinary medicine in this state; 2 Suspend or limit the right to hold a certificate or premises permit in this state; 3 Revoke the license to practice veterinary medicine. A certified animal control agency that employs a certified animal euthanasia technician may purchase, possess and administer sodium pentobarbital or such other drug that the board may approve for the euthanasia of animals.

TN

Any person who in good faith reports to the board any information that a licensed veterinary technician is or may be in violation of any provisions of this chapter is not subject to suit for civil damages as a result thereof. License; denial, suspension or revocation; grounds a The board, pursuant to the procedure prescribed in this section, has the power to deny, suspend or revoke any license or to otherwise discipline an applicant or licensee who is found guilty by the board of one or more of the following: 1 Willful or repeated violation of any provisions of this chapter or any rules of the board; 2 Fraud or deceit in procuring or attempting to procure a license to practice veterinary medicine, or presenting to the board dishonest or fraudulent evidence of qualification or fraud or deception in the process of examination for the purpose of securing a license; 3 The willful failure to display a license; 4 Fraud, deception, misrepresentation, dishonest or illegal practices in or connected with the practice of veterinary medicine in any of its branches; 5 Willfully making any misrepresentation in the inspection of food for human consumption; 6 Fraudulently issuing or using any health certificate, vaccination certificate, inspection certificate, test chart or other blank form used in the practice of veterinary medicine to the dissemination of animal disease, transportation of diseased animals or the sale of inedible products of animal origin for human consumption; 7 Fraud or dishonesty in applying, treating or reporting on tuberculin, diagnostic or other biological test; 8 Failure to keep the equipment and premises of the business establishment in a clean and sanitary condition; 9 Refusing to permit the board or any legal representative of the board to inspect the business premises of the licensee during regular business hours; 10 Circulating knowingly untrue, fraudulent, misleading or deceptive advertising; 11 Gross malpractice or a pattern of continued or repeated malpractice, ignorance, negligence or incompetence in the course of veterinary medical practice; 12 Unprofessional or unethical conduct or engaging in practices in connection with the practice of veterinary medicine that are in violation of the standards of professional conduct as defined in this section or prescribed by the rules of the board; 13 Conduct reflecting unfavorably upon the profession of veterinary medicine; 14 The willful making of any false statement as to a material matter in any oath or affidavit that is required by this chapter; 15 Revocation by another state of a license to practice veterinary medicine in that state, in which case the record of such revocation shall be conclusive evidence; 16 Conviction on a charge of cruelty to animals; 17 Conviction of a felony under federal or state law involving use, misuse, possession or sale of any controlled substance or controlled substance analogue; 18 Conviction of a felony in the courts of this state, or of any other state, territory or country that, if committed in this state, would be a felony; A The record of conviction in a court of competent jurisdiction shall be sufficient evidence for disciplinary action to be taken as may be considered proper by the board. Following revocation of such license, the licensee may be re-licensed at the discretion of the board with or without examination; 4 Impose judgment and penalties, but suspend enforcement thereof and place the licensee or license applicant, certificate holder or certificate applicant, premises permit holder or premises permit applicant on probation; 5 Suspend the imposition of judgment and penalties; 6 Refuse to issue a new license, certificate, or premises permit; 7 Withhold any license, certificate, or premises permit, either permanently or for a period of time, when the same has not been delivered; 8 Suspend or limit the right to own or operate a veterinary facility in this state; or 9 Take such other action in relation to discipline as the board in its discretion may deem proper.

Animals, the Law and Veterinary Medicine: A Guide to Veterinary Law. Soave, Orland: 9781572921481: Books

This is not the case for food-producing animals. Six chapters discuss the historical background of the law; malpractice and negligence issues; veterinary client relations including treatments of contract law, informed consent, and recovery of fees; issues related to practice such as boards of regulation, EPA and OSHA regulations, worker's compensation, the Sherman Antitrust Act, advertising, and zoning; animal protection laws; and public protection laws and regulations.
